REPORT OF COMMISSIONERS.

We have carefully compared the books and accounts of the State Treasurer, with those of the Auditor, and find them correct. All the funds received have been properly charged and credited, and payments made upon the warrants of the Auditor. The vouchers of the Treasurer correspond with entries in the books, and where warrants have been taken for public dues, they contain the endorsements of the parties who paid them in, thus containing valuable information in case of reference as to those trading in warrants. After a careful inspection, we certify the following to be the actual condition of the treasury at this time:

GENERAL STATEMENT OF RECEIPTS AND EXPENDITURES OF THE TREASURY OF ALABAMA, FOR THE FISCAL YEAR ENDING SEPTEMBER 30, 1873:

Balance in Treasury, Sept. 30, 1873:

Uncurrent bills	$ 1,912 46
Certificate of Northern Bank of Alabama	35 05
Silver Coin	354 03
Swamp Land Fund	23,496 85
Currency	2,565 69	$28,364 08
Total receipts for the year ending Sept. 30, 1873		$2,081,641 38
		$2,110,005 46
Disbursements for the year ending Sept. 30, 1873		$1,961,199 61

Balance in Treasury this day:

Uncurrent bills	$ 2,012 00
Certificate of Northern Bank of Alabama	35 05
Silver Coin	361 96
Swamp Land Fund in State certificates	27,340 00
" " " in Currency	3 31
State Certificates	119,050 00
Currency	3 53
	$2,110,005 46

The Treasurer deserves credit for the neatness and care with which he has kept the papers and other valuables entrusted to him; and we would be doing less than justice to him not to testify to the alacrity with which he has met all calls from the Commissioners for information connected with the affairs of his office.

It appears from the books of the Auditor and Treasurer that considerable sums are due the State from various county officers, which sums, if collected promptly would aggregate an amount sufficient to greatly aid the State in its present embarrassment. The laws intended to reach these abuses are generally either defective in some particular, or too slow in their operation to have the desired effect. Your Commissioners would suggest that in all such cases a summary remedy be provided by the General Assembly, so that judgment shall be rendered, and that execution issue after ten days' notice, by mere motion of the Attorney General, made in the City or Circuit Court of Montgomery against these delinquent officials and their sureties.

We have the honor to be,
Your obedient servants,

S. G. REID,
N. S. MCAFEE,
W. V. CHARDAVOYNE,
Examining Commissioners.
